Get Involved

VAVETS is founded on the principal idea that the most effective way to support Virginia Veterans and their families is at the local level where communities and corporations work side by side to provide local support to our local heroes. We recognize that our ability to achieve this idea is dependent on getting our local corporations and communities involved as both donors and volunteers. Below are a list of volunteer opportunities, but we welcome other ideas or just a helping hand. If you have some time and would like to
